

Har Ghar Tiranga – Prabhat Pheri at IIIT Bhagalpur

IIIT Bhagalpur organized a Prabhat Pheri on 12th August 2025 as part of the Har Ghar Tiranga campaign under Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav (AKAM). The event aimed to inspire citizens to hoist the National Flag at their homes and to instill the spirit of patriotism among the institute's community.

The rally began at 9:30 AM from the Administrative Building, with the Director, faculty members, staff, and students enthusiastically participating. Carrying the Tricolor, the procession moved through the Academic Block and Faculty Residences, before concluding at the Library Building.

Led by the Director Sir, the rally echoed with patriotic slogans as participants celebrated the ideals of freedom and national unity. The program concluded with a group gathering in front of the Library, where the IIIT Bhagalpur fraternity came together to uphold the essence of Har Ghar Tiranga.

IIIT Bhagalpur Observes Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyaan with Mass Pledge

IIIT Bhagalpur organized a mass pledge-taking ceremony against drug abuse on 13th August 2025 in front of the Library and Computer Center building, as part of the nationwide campaign Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyaan (NMBA). The event marked the 5th anniversary of the Abhiyaan, initiated under the Ministry of Home Affairs.

The ceremony began at 6:00 PM, witnessing enthusiastic participation from faculty members, staff, and students, who came together to affirm their commitment to a drug-free society. Participants joined lakhs of students across India in taking the official online pledge, with certificates available upon completion.

Carrying banners and raising awareness, the gathering symbolized national solidarity against the menace of drug abuse. The program also encouraged participants to spread the campaign's message through social media using the hashtag #AzadiFromDrugs, amplifying the institute's contribution to India's mission of reaching 3 crore citizens under the movement.

The event concluded with a collective resolve from the IIIT Bhagalpur community to create a drug-free campus and support the broader vision of a healthier and stronger India.

Rangoli Utsav '25

The Mysteve Club organized “Rangoli Utsav ‘25” on August 14, 2025, to celebrate Independence Day. The event, held at the Academic Block of the Indian Institute of Information Technology, Bhagalpur, provided students with a creative platform to express their patriotic spirit. The competition was open to teams of 3 to 4 members, attracting a high number of participants who contributed to a vibrant and memorable celebration.

Numerous teams showcased their artistic talent, with each rangoli design centered on the Independence Day theme. Notable teams included “Rang-E-Azaadi,” “Tiranga Tides,” “Shub-Aarambh,” “Aakriti,” “Rangoboy,” and “Dye Hard.” Their creations demonstrated a variety of interpretations, from a rangoli of the Indian map to symbolic representations of the national flag and other patriotic motifs, highlighting the participants’ creativity and teamwork.

The event was a great success, fostering a sense of community and patriotism among the students. It not only celebrated the spirit of freedom through art but also encouraged collaboration and artistic expression. The completed rangolis, displayed throughout the Academic Block, added immense color and joy to the campus environment, making the Independence Day celebration truly special for all involved.

79th Independence Day Celebration at IIIT Bhagalpur

On August 15, 2024, the IIIT Bhagalpur community gathered to celebrate the 79th Independence Day. The day began with a formal ceremony at the administrative building, where a parade by security personnel preceded the hoisting of the national flag by our Director. The entire community then joined in singing the national anthem and a group patriotic song. Balloons were released into the air to conclude the outdoor ceremony.

The celebration then moved to the Lecture Hall, which was decorated by the Mysteve club. The program began with an inspiring address by our Director, followed by a vibrant cultural showcase. Performances included a duet by the Tarang Sangam club, a speech by Shreya Sinha, and a collaborative “Operation Sindoor” act featuring the Samwaad, Xpression, Mysteve, Animation, and Tarang Sargam clubs. Other highlights were a group poetry performance, a declamation by Suyash Shukla, and a group dance by the Gyrate club. The Mishra Manjil Group also performed, and the annual college magazine, Medhya 2.0, was officially launched.

The event concluded with a lively hour-long musical show, and in the afternoon, the community participated in a vrikshaaropan drive. It was a wonderful day that celebrated our nation's freedom and our shared spirit as a community.
